

SUCCEEDING AGAINST THE ODDS

Photographed in Victoria Street on centre campus, the 2006 recipients of the Rector's Award for Succeeding against the Odds, Amanda de Beer, Toni Mould and Daniella Badenhorst. This award is made annually to students who perform excellently in academic and other fields despite adversity such as illness, disability, difficult personal circumstances or severe financial problems. The financial award of up to R50 000 per year, assists the students to develop their full academic potential.
